Looking out of your front door you will have the feeling of space with the parkland and playgrounds about 100m away across the road instead of houses. This home is a little out of the ordinary with a well thought out design. The kitchen has a fantastic layout and central to overlook the dining and lounge room which leads to the back patio. Add to this a separate theatre room you have a whole lot of space to relax. The main bedroom has a very functional walk-in robe and ensuite. This would make a wonderful place to call home for your family for many years to come.
