

20 Sturges Street HERMIT PARK QLD

3 1

You will instantaneously feel the love upon entering this sincere and perfect offering. It has been a family home for over a decade and her owners have poured countless hours into her upkeep and maintenance resulting in an almost perfect example of her pre war era.

The practical and crafted New Guinea Rosewood kitchen with gas cook top is immaculate and melds beautifully into the traditional undertone of the home. The front louvered veranda has been a special place for relaxing or homework assignments while the backyard has seen countless backyard cricket matches.

This is a very special home in a wonderful street. It will win your heart.
