Gorgeously designed homes; sigh. We dream about them, pin ideas about them to our most treasured Pinterest boards, gawk at our neighbours' renovations and take an extra-long time shuffling down the aisles of home stores. We are all literally obsessed with beautiful homes. If you can relate to this then this custom built home at Bushland Beach is a absolute must to inspect.

The custom design of this home harmonises our tropical North Queensland environment, including 2.7 metre ceiling, louver windows and positioned to take the best advantage of natural light and the ocean breeze. This beautiful home is a delight at any time of the day or night and comfortable in all seasons.

Stunning polished concrete floors to the open plan living area. The characteristics of the kitchen are contemporary and well-polished, including:

- Stone island bench and breakfast bar.
- Natural stone splashback and stainless steel back bench
