Enter onto the front veranda and the spell is cast leaving an indelible impression. You have arrived into the most fastidious contemporary residence, while stepping back into the blueprint of the past. Stately elegance is celebrated with 3.9m ceilings, wide hoop pine flooring, unique casements and a beautiful etched glass feature.

You will appreciate the luxury of space with enormous open plan living and dining, enclosed front sizeable veranda ideal for those relaxed afternoons with friends or the rear living area with bi-folds to decking, a great space for children to unwind. The kitchen is pure class with feature Pulbura marble servery, Essa stone bench tops and five burner gas stove. It is the Master suite that will impress; exquisite cabinetry to the walk-in-robe and hexagonal tiles to the master bath add to the luxurious but restful retreat.

Combine this wonderful offering with the fact that it is located on a quarter acre with Castle hill views and stunning tropical fully irrigated plantings, six car parks to the rear all within walking distance to The Strand and Castle Hill... you will relish this gorgeous offering.
