159 Goicoechea Drive BUSHLAND BEACH QLD

Looking for a sea change from the city? There comes a time when enough is enough, when you want to wake up and smell the roses not the cars driving past. Bushland Beach is one of these locations where you can leave the rat race behind and go for long walks along the beach as the sun rises over the Coral Sea, Magnetic Island and on a clear day right across to the world heritage Hinchinbrook Island. Or perhaps your kids like to go for long bike rides with their friends along the myriad of pathways and trails that crisscross their way along one of Townsville's most loved beach side suburbs. However, with all these options for a relaxed lifestyle you need the perfect block to build your dream home on or even better a block that can take advantage of the sea breezes in the late afternoon or a deck that you can look out and see whales breach as they make their way up the coast to their winter hideaway. We have the block for you! 159 Goicoechea Drive is perfect in
