If you are looking for value for money, then this home is hard to go past. Not only is it in a sought-after suburb, the property has been very well maintained and was not affected by the 2019 flood.

The layout of this home has been well designed to ensure easy living. The good-sized main bedroom has an ensuite and the main bathroom has a separate bath and shower. The kitchen is nicely appointed and flows to the dining area which leads to the rear veranda. The ceiling is 2.7m high and there's a separate internal laundry.
