

66 Mount Louisa Drive MOUNT LOUISA QLD

6 3 4

When you're looking for a new home there is always things you would like to have and things you have JUST got to have, rarely is there a property that has it all until now. 66 Mount Louisa Drive is fresh to the market and ticks all the boxes.

Whether you are wanting to live upstairs and rent out downstairs. Or you would like a separate self-contained unit for a teenager's or elderly parents retreat - the opportunities are endless.

That's not all, you have a 2 bay shed for all your storage needs, a great entertaining area under the deck, and a pool just ready for summer fun. With solar on the roof - there is no need to panic if you don't like to swim to cool down - simply pop on the air conditioners!

The current owners are almost out and are looking for a quick settlement - so come and do an inspection this weekend.

You will be able to have it all when you mount up and head to Mount Louisa.
