

25 Armstrong Street HERMIT PARK QLD

6 2 1

You'll love stepping back in time as you step inside this spectacular six-bedroom two storey Queenslander. Steeped in history and flooded with old world charm this majestic home harmoniously blends architecture from a bygone era with the modern conveniences expected today.

Circa 1925 this home is alive with character embracing the original features such as high ceilings and stained-glass casement windows which offer direct ventilation into the house. Ornate timber fretwork, a wide veranda, and French doors feature prominently throughout the home adding to the charm and nostalgia of yesteryear.

Upon entry, the radiant timber flooring leads to places to retreat, spaces to gather and areas to entertain, paramount to creating a harmonious home. The generously proportioned kitchen, dining and living space plays the part of a charming Queenslander. The country timber style kitchen will impress any home cook which stone bench tops and ample storage add to the appeal and functionality of the kitchen.
