In today's market, I am constantly getting requests from buyers who are looking for a great investment or people who are wanting to buy their first property but don't want to spend a lot of money. Of course once you buy you don't want to have to do any work, in fact moving straight in would be the ideal situation. Well, you can stop looking for the mystical property unicorn! I have just listed the perfect property that fits the bill for whatever you are looking for. With a great location right by the Ross River, you'll have access to the wonderful parks and bikeways! Plus, it has been recently renovated with almost everything is new from Built-ins in the bedrooms, walk in shower, separate toilet European laundry, 2 air con's and crim safe on the doors and windows -- the owners may even look at including all the furniture.. But don't just take my word for it, go onto your favourite real estate website and compare! I really don't think you could buy better in the current Townsville Property Market. Call today and make time to inspect before this opportunity is gone!
