Come home to this great riverside opportunity!

This large unit with a massive pool in the complex and a great balcony will leave you with plenty of space for entertaining. If that is not enough then this amazing unit is close to the university, hospital and Army barracks and represents a unique opportunity for an investor or home buyer.

This well-finished two-bedroom, two-bathroom unit is very neat and tidy. Both bedrooms have split system air conditioning and built-in robes. One of the bathrooms has a wonderful relaxing bathtub, while the neat kitchen with island bench and breakfast bar ensures the chef can remain part of the family conversations while whipping up a storm. The unit is oriented to take advantage of the natural light from the balcony, offering a seamless transition between inside and out.

Riverview apartments is a very well-run complex, with the on-site management keeping everything running smoothly, ensuring your home or investment is as safe as can be. A huge pool in the centre of the complex would be the perfect
