This first impression is a lasting one. Walking through the front gate you instantly feel the welcoming ambience and know that you are walking into something special. The front facade captures a sense of timeless Queensland elegance and relaxed charm.

The character has been retained on the inside as well with striking high ceilings, polished timber floors, fretwork, casement windows, tongue and groove walls with picture rails, all flow throughout the home creating a sense of space and warmth. Elegant interiors hold classic appeal to deliver a stylish residence.

Soak up the traditional timber kitchen - guarantee to serve up a treat. Opening to the rear large deck by classic casements and french timber doors, all adjoining the dining area, allows entertaining to flow seamlessly.

Formal living area showcases striking timber floors with split air-conditioning or relax alongside the wrap around verandah - plenty of room for everyone to live in complete style and comfort.

Upstairs accommodates 3 bedrooms while downstairs offers the 4th bedroom with separate living area, second bathroom plus combined kitchenette and laundry. A perfect retreat for guests, teenagers, or home office. Potential is
