3 1 2

Have you ever come home from a day of work and just wanted to put your feet up and listen to the sound of birds and enjoy the peace and quiet of the bush rather than the sound of traffic and noisy neighbors? Would you like to spend your mornings sipping coffee watching the antics of rock wallabies, and butterflies as you start your day? If so, then we have just the property for you. Tucked behind a white picket fence, snug against the base of Mount Stuart, is the perfect 3 bedroom cottage nestled amongst landscaped irrigated gardens, and blended seamlessly with the bush. Situated towards the back of the block, and with only nature to the rear and side, this is the home your soul has been craving for. The rear deck overlooking the garden is ideal for a quiet Sunday afternoon BBQ or a relaxing glass of wine after work. There is even a creek just off the boundary that runs gently in the wet season. I know that if these are the things that you are missing in your life you really have to inspect today!
