

29 Philp Street Hermit Park QLD

1 1

There comes a time that we all are looking for our own little piece of paradise. A home that has a perfect location and is only a short drive to the CBD and wonderfully positioned for Sunday morning walks along the water. 29 Philp Street is one such property with no rear neighbours and backs onto the bike ways and park land of Ross Creek. You could even walk to the new stadium. The home itself is a quaint little one bedroom cottage that will remind you of the very best of yesteryear with a rear timber deck that is perfect for morning coffees, you will enjoy the serenity! The current owner has committed elsewhere and is looking at all options to secure a sale make no mistake you will have to be quick with this one!
