This huge brick and tile home has a striking street presence compared to all the other houses around it. It sits on a large 1139sqm block that backs onto a wide tree filled easement/nature corridor making it lovely and private while you are entertaining on the large timber deck. With gleaming polished timber floorboards throughout the living areas and bedrooms and high cathedral ceilings the home has a real feeling of grandeur when you walk past the privacy wall into the main living area. If you have a large family then Bushland Beach houses don't come much bigger than this:

* Entry is through double feature timber doors to a foyer area with a large downlit art niche and a privacy wall so visitors can't see straight into the house

* Massive open plan living and dining spaces on three sides around the kitchen. High cathedral ceilings to the
