

Harcourts Kingsberry

50 Mount Spec Road Paluma QLD

2  1  1

Located in the small village of Paluma surrounded by rainforest and national Parks is this gorgeous historic cottage. A time capsule full of charm and character this lovely home has very unique features and beautiful street appeal.

A timber and rendered fence with agapanthus garden beds either side of a central footpath lead to the gorgeous rendered façade and timber features with a delightful front porch and a split barn style front door.

The original part of the home features 2 bedrooms and open plan living area, characterised by dropdown windows with heritage patterned glass and timber shutters (screens are available to add when the windows are open).

A later addition to the home is a second stepdown living room, bathroom with corner bath and separate laundry. A dual frontage fireplace adds warmth and ambience whilst floor to ceiling windows and sliding doors open out to a full
