17 French Street Pimlico QLD

2 1 1

A classic post war home in the central suburb of Pimlico. Inside and out the home has been sympathetically restored in keeping with the era.

From the street you are greeted with a decorative arbour at the front gate and neat landscaped cottage like gardens. The home is timber construction with weatherboard exterior and an iron roof.

Inside there are two bedrooms as well as a sleepout, period light fittings, VJ walls and polished timber floors throughout. There are two living rooms, the first at the front of the home whilst the main living room features stained decorative archways.

The kitchen offers a pantry, dishwasher and decorative glass front overhead cabinets. True to the era the bathroom
