This popular suburb is renowned for its Queenslanders, these homes represent the quintessential Australian lifestyle, breezy patios, and relaxed cottage style.

This home is spread out over two levels. Upstairs there are three bedrooms, the master is a large room with robe. The second bedroom also has a built-in robe whilst the third bedroom is a long room with offers space for a study at one end.

The living area stretching from the front to the back opens directly onto a covered rear deck through a set of bifold doors, as does the galley kitchen. There is also the main bathroom at the rear of the living space.

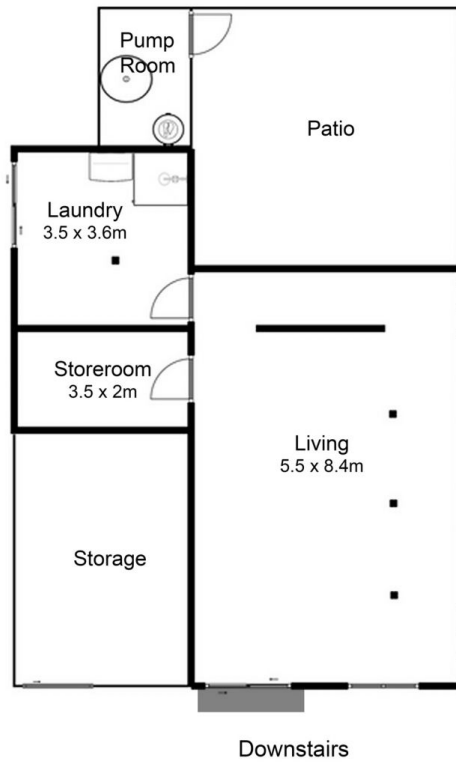

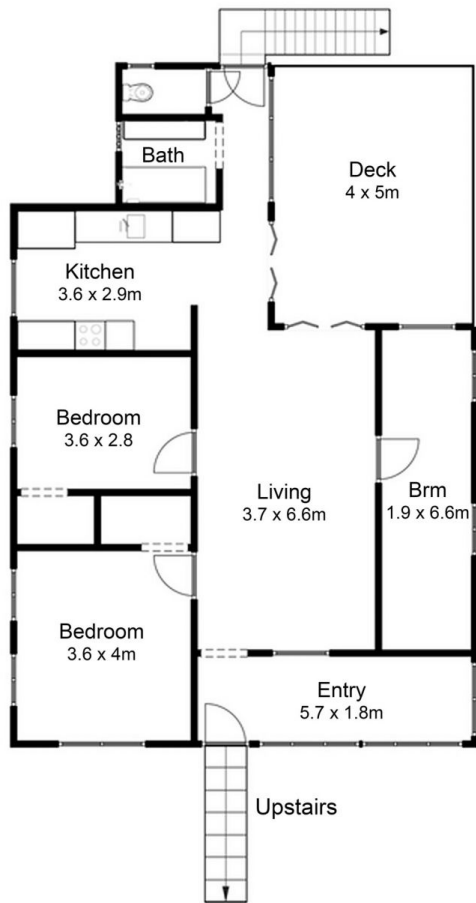

Downstairs has been recently refurbished and is made up of three rooms. A large living room with polished concrete floors, a tiled storeroom and tiled laundry with a nearly completed second shower and provision for another toilet.

Beyond the home is the swimming pool with its own covered pavilion. There is a car accommodation down the side of the home and under the deck is another concreted
