

51 Deedes Crescent Bushland Beach QLD

This 678sqm block slopes up off the road to a level building pad that gives you ocean glimpses from a single level build and good ocean views from a two level build. In addition it has nice views out the back over Mount Low to the mountains beyond. With vacant land behind and on one side there is only one neighbour making it a nice peaceful location.

The Bushland Beach market continues to go from strength to strength such that opportunities to buy a block with ocean views for $120,000 will be few and far between now and into the future. Buy now and build your dream home or just sit on the block and reap the rewards in the future - either way you can't go wrong.

Call the agent on 0423 692 422 to meet him on site to walk over the block and explore it's possibilities - but be quick!!
